INTERNATIONAL PRELIMINARY
EXAMINATION REPORT

International application No. PCT/US00/02194

I. Basis of the report

1. With regard to the elements of the international application (Replacement sheets which have been furnished to the receiving Office in response to an invitation under Article 14 are referred to in this report as "originally filed" and are not annexed to this report since they do not contain amendments (Rules 70.16 and 70.17)):

Description, pages:

1-30 as originally filed

Claims, No.:

1-47 as originally filed

Drawings, sheets:

1/11-11/11 as originally filed

2. With regard to the language, all the elements marked above were available or furnished to this Authority in the language in which the international application was filed, unless otherwise indicated under this item.

These elements were available or furnished to this Authority in the following language: , which is:

- ☐ the language of a translation furnished for the purposes of the international search (under Rule 23.1(b)).
☐ the language of publication of the international application (under Rule 48.3(b)).
☐ the language of a translation furnished for the purposes of international preliminary examination (under Rule 55.2 and/or 55.3).

3. With regard to any nucleotide and/or amino acid sequence disclosed in the international application, the international preliminary examination was carried out on the basis of the sequence listing:

- ☐ contained in the international application in written form.
☐ filed together with the international application in computer readable form.
☐ furnished subsequently to this Authority in written form.
☐ furnished subsequently to this Authority in computer readable form.
☐ The statement that the subsequently furnished written sequence listing does not go beyond the disclosure in the international application as filed has been furnished.
☐ The statement that the information recorded in computer readable form is identical to the written sequence listing has been furnished.

4. The amendments have resulted in the cancellation of:

- ☐ the description, pages:
☐ the claims, Nos.:

INTERNATIONAL PRELIMINARY
EXAMINATION REPORT

International application No. PCT/US00/02194

☐ the drawings, sheets:

5. ☐ This report has been established as if (some of) the amendments had not been made, since they have been considered to go beyond the disclosure as filed (Rule 70.2(c)):

(Any replacement sheet containing such amendments must be referred to under item 1 and annexed to this report.)

6. Additional observations, if necessary:

V. Reasoned statement under Article 35(2) with regard to novelty, inventive step or industrial applicability; citations and explanations supporting such statement

	No:	Claims	1,2,5,10,11,19,20,27-29,31,43

VII. Certain defects in the international application

The following defects in the form or contents of the international application have been noted:
see separate sheet

VIII. Certain observations on the international application

The following observations on the clarity of the claims, description, and drawings or on the question whether the claims are fully supported by the description, are made:
see separate sheet

R Item VIII

Certain observations on the international application

1. The application does not meet the requirements of Article 6 PCT, because claims 1, 5, 10, 13-15 (product claims: A), 19, 31 (method claims: B) and 43 are not clear.
2. Although the groups of claims A and B have been drafted as separate independent claims, they appear to relate within each single group effectively to the same subject-matter and to differ from each other only with regard to the definition of the subject-matter for which protection is sought or in respect of the terminology used for the features of that subject-matter. The aforementioned claims therefore lack conciseness.
Moreover, lack of clarity of the claims as a whole arises, since the plurality of independent claims makes it difficult, if not impossible, to determine the matter for which protection is sought, and places an undue burden on others seeking to establish the extent of the protection.
In this case one claim per category (A and B) is appropriate.
3. Present claim 43 refers to "the method of any of the Claims 18 and 31". Claim 18 however is a product claim. This inconsistency leads to an ambiguity about the scope of the claim, thus rendering it unclear; accordingly, the claim requires amendment to remove this defect.
In this case it would seem that the intended reference is to product claim 19.

Re Item V

Reasoned statement under Rule 66.2(a)(ii) with regard to novelty, inventive step or industrial applicability; citations and explanations supporting such statement

1. Reference is made to the following documents:
D1: US-A-5 490 931 (T.-SH.CHUNG ET AL) 13 February 1996 (1996-02-13)
D2: US-A-4882223 [corresponds to FR-A-2 566 003 (INSTITUT NATIONAL DE LA RECHERCHE APPLIQUEE ET AL) 20 December 1985 (1985-12-20)]; annexed to this communication.

2. In so far as what can be understood from the claims:

The present application does not satisfy the criterion set forth in Article 33 (2) PCT because the subject-matter of claims 1, 2, 5, 10, 11, 19, 20, 27-29, 31 and 43 is not new as defined in the regulations (Rule 64 (1)-(3) PCT).

2.1. Document D1 (for citations see the International Search Report), discloses a hollow fibre membrane made of perfluorinated thermoplastic comprising a skinned, dense (i.e. non-porous) surface on one diameter and a porous surface on the opposite diameter and a process for its manufacture (cf. col. 1, lines 26-33; col. 2, lines 6-24; the examples; claim 1).
It is obviously usable for ultrafiltration (cf. col. 2, lines 25-27; col. 4, lines 3-19).

2.2. Claims for products defined in terms of a process of manufacture (present claim 43) are admissible only if the products as such fulfil the requirements of patentability, i.e. inter alia that they are new and inventive. A product is not rendered novel merely by the fact that it is produced by means of a new process. This is, as far as the subject-matter of claim 43 is concerned, not the case here (see point 2.1 above).

2.3. The applicant's attention is further drawn to the fact that D2, independently from D1, forms a novelty bar for the subject-matter of the same claims 1, 2, 5, 10, 11 and 43 (cf. col. 2, lines 9-34, lines 45-48; col. 6, line 65 to col. 7, line 9; fig. 2, 4, 7; example 2; claims 1 and 2).

2.4. Presently it seems that claims 3, 4, 6-9, 12-18 and 44-47 do not contain any features which meet the requirements of the PCT in respect of inventive step.

2.5. Present claim 19 obviously refers to a wet spinning method of hollow fibres ("... a portion of said die being submerged in a cooling bath ...") whereas claim 31 refers to a dry-wet spinning method of hollow fibres (cf. step d) of claim 31).

The method of claim 19 is anticipated by the teachings of D1 (cf. col. 2, line 63 to col. 4, line 2; col. 4, line 50, example 1) and that of claim 31 by D2 (cf. col. 3, line 66 to col 4, line 47).

Thus, as D1 discloses all the technical features defined by the subject-matter of claims 19, 20, 27-29 of the present application and D2 discloses all the technical features defined by the subject-matter of claim 31, said subject-matter is not new in respect of prior art as defined in the regulations (Rule 64(1)-(3) PCT).

2.6. Presently it seems that claims 21-26, 30 and 32 to 42 do not contain any features which meet the requirements of the PCT in respect of inventive step.

Re Item VII

Certain defects in the international application

Contrary to the requirements of Rule 5.1(a)(ii) PCT, the relevant background art disclosed in the documents D1 and D2 is not mentioned in the description, nor is this document identified therein.

(54) Title: SKINNED HOLLOW FIBER MEMBRANE AND METHOD OF MANUFACTURE

(57) Abstract: Hollow fiber membranes having a skinned surface on one diameter, and a porous surface on the opposite diameter are produced from perfluorinated thermoplastic polymers by extruding a heated solution of the polymer having a lower critical solution temperature directly into a cooling bath to form the porous membrane by liquid-liquid phase separation. Extrusion can be conducted either vertically or horizontally. The hollow fiber membranes are useful as ultrafiltration membranes and as membrane contactors.

NOTES TO FORM PCT/ISA/220

These Notes are intended to give the basic instructions concerning the filing of amendments under article 19. The Notes are based on the requirements of the Patent Cooperation Treaty, the Regulations and the Administrative Instructions under that Treaty. In case of discrepancy between these Notes and those requirements, the latter are applicable. For more detailed information, see also the PCT Applicant's Guide, a publication of WIPO.

In these Notes, "Article", "Rule", and "Section" refer to the provisions of the PCT, the PCT Regulations and the PCT Administrative Instructions respectively.

INSTRUCTIONS CONCERNING AMENDMENTS UNDER ARTICLE 19

The applicant has, after having received the international search report, one opportunity to amend the claims of the international application. It should however be emphasized that, since all parts of the international application (claims, description and drawings) may be amended during the international preliminary examination procedure, there is usually no need to file amendments of the claims under Article 19 except where, e.g. the applicant wants the latter to be published for the purposes of provisional protection or has another reason for amending the claims before international publication. Furthermore, it should be emphasized that provisional protection is available in some States only.

What parts of the international application may be amended?

Under Article 19, only the claims may be amended.

During the international phase, the claims may also be amended (or further amended) under Article 34 before the International Preliminary Examining Authority. The description and drawings may only be amended under Article 34 before the International Examining Authority.

Upon entry into the national phase, all parts of the international application may be amended under Article 28 or, where applicable, Article 41.

When?

Within 2 months from the date of transmittal of the international search report or 16 months from the priority date, whichever time limit expires later. It should be noted, however, that the amendments will be considered as having been received on time if they are received by the International Bureau after the expiration of the applicable time limit but before the completion of the technical preparations for international publication (Rule 46.1).

Where not to file the amendments?

The amendments may only be filed with the International Bureau and not with the receiving Office or the International Searching Authority (Rule 46.2).

Where a demand for international preliminary examination has been/is filed, see below.

How?

Either by cancelling one or more entire claims, by adding one or more new claims or by amending the text of one or more of the claims as filed.

A replacement sheet must be submitted for each sheet of the claims which, on account of an amendment or amendments, differs from the sheet originally filed.

All the claims appearing on a replacement sheet must be numbered in Arabic numerals. Where a claim is cancelled, no renumbering of the other claims is required. In all cases where claims are renumbered, they must be renumbered consecutively (Administrative Instructions, Section 205(b)).

The amendments must be made in the language in which the international application is to be published.

What documents must/may accompany the amendments?

Letter (Section 205(b)):

The amendments must be submitted with a letter.
